Mr. Leroy E. Wike, Executive Secretary
International Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc.
Pennsylvania Avenue at 17th Street, N. W.
Washington 6, D. C.

Dear Mr. Wike:

Upon returning to my office from a brief visit to Europe, I have your letter of 24 June inviting me to address the 67th Annual Conference of the International Association of Chiefs of Police on 3 October.

Much as I would like to join you on this occasion, I am planning to be out of the country this fall and, therefore, must regretfully decline your very kind invitation. However, I would like to suggest that Mr. Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, our Inspector General and one of our most senior officers, represent the Agency at your Conference.

Your courtesy in asking me to attend your annual meeting again is indeed appreciated.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Dulles:

I have checked with General Cabell and he will be unable to participate in the Conference this year. As you recall, he spoke to this group several years ago and Bob Amory, Red White and [ ] have also represented the Agency on previous occasions. I have talked to Kirk about this and he tells me that he will be very happy to speak to this group.

For your information, I am attaching a copy of our letter of 28 June which was sent to Mr. Wike.
